Northern - Norway's Own Blues Queen on CD!

Large audiences all over Norway and abroad, have been impressed with "Mighty" Marith Endresen's intense and direct style as she has been touring and gigging at pubs, bars, venues, churches, and everywhere else possible for more than 30 years. Now Marith and the ever faithful "MeanMen", Trond Hansen(bass) and Hans Isaksen(guitar) have settled on their own unique style and the result is "The Damn Finest Little Juke Joint Combo North Of The Arctic Circle Crossroads."

Mighty Marith & The MeanMen have recorded a selection of their live set favourites, played with the usual raw and dirty, intense but still sensitive feel that has become their own personal hallmark. Three skilled musicians, vocals, guitar, bass and a very gentle touch of percussion is all there is to it. This unique format gives the listener the opportunity to get closer to the very core of the music. The songs are driven by the experience derived from thousands of live gigs. The album atmosphere is a function of lives lived, with music as profession, companion, and passion.

Mighty Marith & The MeanMen is:

Marith Endresen:	Lead Vocals
Trond Hansen:	Bass, Tamboots, Backing Vocals
Hans Isaksen	Gitar, Lap Steel, Backing Vocals
